

Do not overturn New Jersey's law on unsolicited calls from telemarketers. We can finally enjoy dinner and quiet evenings without these obnoxious people trying to sell us everything from Florida property in swamplands to books, magazines, mortgages, kitchen tools, and all other useless frauds. Use common sense. We have a right not to be disturbed by outsiders and con artists.